

Please do not make ANY rule changes until the actual wording has been made public, and the public has had a chance to debate the proposal. This is an issue of tremendous importance, and as a citizen, I want to see the FCC be accountable to the public.